

WHAT DREAMS CAN BECOME - SMART START SYSTEM

---

Last but not least- you have now started a business. That means that next year you can now start writing it off on your TAXES.

What does that mean?

So as you buy things for your business- you will need to keep things for your taxes this year and every year that you do this.

I am not a tax preparer, but I'm just giving you a tip of what I do.

I would also suggest going through Ron Mueller's class. He is an expert in online businesses

Start keeping receipts for :

- 1. Hosting
- 2. Domain names that you buy
- 3. Any Mail Service that you pay for (Aweber, Convert kit, mail chimp)
- 4. If you buy themes
- 5. If you buy any services (website design, graphics)
- 6. Any person that you hire and how much you paid them (as a contractor, like a Virtual Assistant)
- 7. Facebook Ads
- 8. Conferences that you go to
- 9. Any coaches that you hire to help you.

Here's also a whole list of stuff for you to consider to write off. Really the list goes on and on but go to a tax preparer or visit Ron Mueller for a list.
